

Cancer is scary enough. Don't take away our coverage.

If the proposed Senate health care bill is enacted, living with cancer will get even scarier. For many, the bill will make coverage a lot more expensive and could make protections for patients with pre-existing conditions meaningless. It will also slash Medicaid coverage, jeopardizing care for the 2.3 million low-income people affected by cancer who rely on the program.

Tell Senators:
Vote Against the Health Care Bill

Visit acscan.org/coverage

